Dear Democrat,

Party endorsements

The Santa Clara County Democratic Party (SCCDP) has endorsed the candidates listed here in local races on the November 8, 2022 ballot. Voters can visit the page here to look up by city/district the endorsed candidates on their ballot. The SCCDP considers our endorsed candidates to be the ones most likely to tackle issues such as housing, homelessness, public safety, and other pressing issues in ways that align with our Democratic values. Please support them and share our endorsed candidates list widely!

The Registrar will begin mailing ballots on October 11 and they must be postmarked or returned to a dropbox or vote center by Election Day, Tuesday, November 8, 2022 by 8pm. Time to vote!

SOS! Local MAGA's running for school boards!

SCCDP needs your help to spread the word about MAGA school board candidates who are running in Santa Clara County this November. To help you spread the word we have created a web page that has more information and lists the MAGA candidates. <https://sccd.org/index.php/schools/>

These candidates deny Trump lost the election, some want the bible taught in our public schools, some want to ban books, others are homophobic, others are anti-vaccine and promote ivermectin for COVID, and others don't want schools to teach our actual history regarding slavery and other issues.

You can help us get out the word by emailing/calling/talking about these extreme candidates and sharing our page (which has specific information regarding the groups that are endorsing these candidates).

Help us to spread the word by donating here: https://bit.ly/sccdp\_schools

Thank you for helping to get the word out about these very dangerous candidates.

Volunteer of the month: Gayle Boesch

It was the 2016 presidential election that converted Gayle Boesch to activism. But what keeps her at it isn't just that. It's also the people she's met and the friendships she's made.

"To me, it's like an extended family," said Boesch, who, as one of the leaders of South Bay Swing Left, works closely with the SCCDP.

"It goes beyond activism. We support each other when someone is sick or needs help. We get together for dinner. We're friends."

Heading into the midterms, Boesch is a busy woman. She's publicizing events to get Cindy Chavez elected as San Jose's next mayor. She's joined SCCDP's fight to defeat the MAGA Republicans running to take over our local schools. And she's working to attract volunteers to the campaigns of Democratic candidates in three key California congressional districts and two equally key Senate races in Arizona and Nevada.
