Dems hold People's Town Halls

All across the nation, the Democratic Party is holding People's Town Halls, not only in blue districts but also in red ones where Republican representatives are running scared, hiding from voters.

Our party is holding these town halls to make sure voters see what's going down: the rising cost of eggs; the threats to public health, veterans' benefits, the environment, food assistance, Social Security, Medicaid, and more.

We will be posting notice of local town halls on our website, as well as other opportunities for you to meet with your congressperson.

Democrats won't hide from voters, and we won't be silent. We are going to stand up, together, and fight for our country.

Local politics matters too!

Local politics matters too! It's how we can most easily spread our democratic values, and build a pipeline to state and national office.

On April 8, we notched a victory on this front. Our endorsed candidate, Gabby Chavez-Lopez, established a commanding lead in the special election to fill the vacancy in San Jose's 3rd City Council district, which includes downtown and surrounding areas. Congratulations, Gabby!

Gabby will face the second-place finisher in a run-off set for June 24.

Our other endorsed Democrat, Anthony Tordillos, is in a tight race for the second spot in the run-off, separated from candidate Matthew Quevedo by a handful of votes. Contact Anthony's campaign at kurt@neostrategies.us to help cure ballots and to observe their counting.

Then as June 24 approaches, check our calendar page for opportunities to help Gabby and hopefully Anthony in the run-off. Let's get one of our endorsed candidates elected to represent San Jose's District 3.
